

81st ERAU Prescott Aviation History Presentation

The Doolittle Raid

HERB ZINN's first and true passion is military history. He has written various articles on topics of interest relating to World War II, and has been a visiting lecturer at Scottsdale Community College and Chandler-Gilbert Community College on topics related to military history and the role of military aviation in modern-day combat.

The Doolittle Tokyo Raid

At a desperate moment in time, Americas sagging morale was suddenly boosted by the bravery of 80 men who did the seemingly impossible on a mission that changed the course of the war in the Pacific in 1942
